The hour is in my hand, and in my heart
Miscellany of shards and shreds. The clock
Ticks its iambics, and the heart its spondees,
Time has come, time has come and gone,
Winter has taken its toll, summer its harvest,
Spring has brought and taken away its illusion.

SHARPLES HIGH SCHOOL

It is a high school serving three conservative communities of nearly three thousand West Virginians.
SHARPLES

Campus is quiet . . . like the towns. At least outwardly quiet. Maybe, inwardly, a dynamic awareness.

Within the staid brick walls there is sometimes understanding, sometimes an awareness, sometimes . . . people want to change the world around them.

People. Their actions and reactions make a high school. But do they make Sharples different from any other school?
A year.

Of pressure and relief.

Overdue papers and reading assignments. Vacation breaks to ease the monotony. Lovers quarrels and giggly parties.

With the excitement of "getting away" with something.

A year.

Of mid-terms and finals. Caffeine and nicotine, added to a physical wreck to keep it going through one more exam. So can take it.

A year.

To do your own thing. To individualize . . . or is it conform? With the latest fashions. Or original designs. Practically maxis in the winter and minis in the summer. A de-emphasis of sexual prejudice. It isn't how long your hair is what's under it that counts.

A year.

Of desire to find peace, love and happiness. Students with attitudes contrary to the accepted views of society.

A year.

Ended.

And in its place, another. For each student a multitude of experiences, unique and never repeated. The drama of Sharples, its physical structure and spirit, will remain. Only the characters change.

A year.

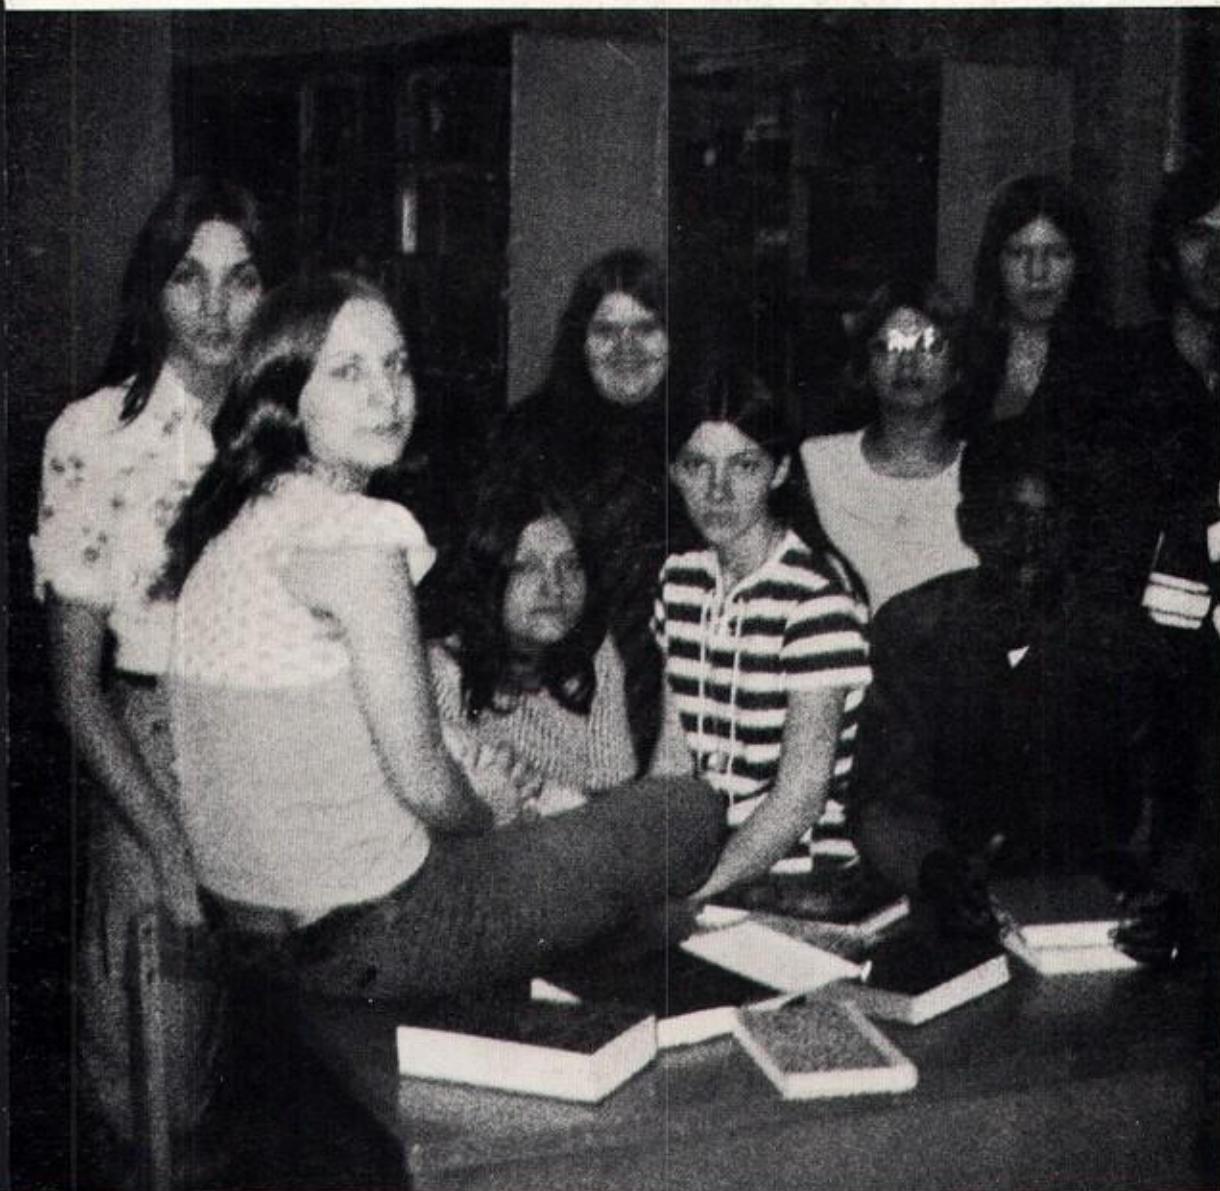

Of life, with universal experiences.

Meaningless?

Except to those who were a part of them.

Alice,

Is a very nice sister sometimes! But then I guess you're ok! I know one thing we've sure shared a lot of secrets and if you ever tell anybody mine I'll break your neck! (HA-HA) We're always giving each other expressions like that and half the time even worse! Right? You've gave me a lot of advice and now I wish I would of used some of it! But some of it I did use sure did help me out! Probably the advice I gave you got you in more trouble than to help you out! (HA-HA) But I really do hope that I have helped you out in some way! And I hope to help you out more in the future! I swear I won't tell anybody any of your secrets cause I know you can't tell mine! I want to wish you all the love, luck, and happiness in the world!

P.S. Don't forget when you get a job you owe me $5.00!!

That's too bad you don't get it!!

Love ya,

Merlene

Alice, I hope you will not die because if you do I won't come here every more because you have been good to me for a long time when you were in school
 you help me a lot, and that's why
 I hope you'll live!

O.K. I hope we will have more fun from here, now I have 2 more days at school we will see you! we will see you!
 by now good luck on your days and your life, and work by now O.K. so don't leave! You better not! O.K. Your friend

Alice,
 You are a very nice and sweet girl.
 You are just like a "big sister". It ~~seems~~ seems like you always around when I need someone to talk to. Good luck and stay the way you are and you'll go a long way.
May God Bless You

Alice
You are the best neighbor and friend I have ever known.
I know we've had our ups and downs. But somehow we've always come out of it. Sometimes we argue but not for real. I'll never forget your friendship, kindness, or any of all the good times we've had together. I wish you all the luck you need.
Can't you really do deserve it.

RMA.
